

DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

The Incumbent and Parochial Church Council (PCC) of St Michael's, Axmouth

1. Your personal data – what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Incumbent and the PCC of St Michael's, Axmouth are the data controllers. This means they decide how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Incumbent and PCC of St Michael's, Axmouth comply with their obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records, including the processing of gift aid applications;
- To inform you of news, events, activities and services at St Michael's Church;
- To share your contact details with the Diocesan office so they can keep you informed about news in the diocese and events, activities and services in which you may be interested.

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can communicate with you about news, events, activities and services, process your gift aid donations and keep you informed about parish and diocesan events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out obligations under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a not-for-profit body with a political, philosophical, religious or trade union aim, provided that: -

- the processing relates only to members or former members or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes; and
- there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will be shared with other members of the church only in order to carry out a service to other church members or for purposes connected with the church. We will share your data with third parties outside the parish only with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data¹?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in the guide “Keep or Bin: Care of Your Parish Records” which is available from the Church of England website [see footnote for link].

Specifically, we retain electoral roll data while it is still current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and parish registers (baptisms, marriages, funerals) permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data

Unless subject to an exemption under the GDPR, you have the following rights with respect to your personal data: -

- The right to request a copy of personal data which the Incumbent or the PCC of St Michael’s, Axmouth hold about you;
- The right to request that the Incumbent and PCC of St Michael’s, Axmouth correct any personal data if it is found to be inaccurate or out of date;
- The right to request your personal data is erased where it is no longer necessary for the Incumbent or PCC of St Michael’s, Axmouth to retain such data;
- The right to withdraw your consent to the processing at any time
- The right, where there is a dispute in relation to the accuracy or processing of your personal data, to request a restriction is placed on further processing;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner’s Office.

8. Further processing

If we wish to use your personal data for a new purpose, not covered by this Data Protection Notice, then we will provide you with a new notice explaining this new use before commencing the processing and setting out the relevant purposes and processing conditions. Where and whenever necessary, we will seek your prior consent to the new processing.

9. Contact Details

To exercise all relevant rights, queries of complaints please in the first instance contact the PCC Secretary, Iain Purdon on (01297) 21372 or by email at iain.purdon@btinternet.com

You can contact the Information Commissioners Office on 0303 123 1113 or via email <https://ico.org.uk/global/contact-us/email/> or at the Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire. SK9 5AF.

¹ Details about retention periods can currently be found in the Record Management Guides located on the Church of England website at: - <https://www.churchofengland.org/more/libraries-and-archives/records-management-guides>