September - A Month of Prayer – Week 5

We have come to the final week of the AVMC Month of Prayer. Together we have been united in praying for each of our parishes in individual churches in them. We have also prayed for the life of the wider church that together we shine a light perpetual where we live.

If you would like to join us for Morning prayer this week, please feel free to do so. We meet at 8.30am each weekday on Zoom.

September 27th

Father, today we lift to you our Archdeacon Andrew and our Bishops, Robert, Jackie and Nick. You know well that this is a time when unusually difficult and impactive decisions need to be made, and we join our prayers with theirs that such decisions will be the right ones for all your people, taken with your grace and guidance.

Hear our prayer Father, and grant us the strength to support and uphold all whose calling is to teach and guide us in the way of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

September 28th

Today we pray for the Parish of Uplyme, for all who live and work in the parish.

we especially pray for all who worship at St Peter & Paul, and all those who seek to keep alive the Christian witness in that place. We ask Lord that your light shine upon them making them beacon of your light and love. Amen

September 29th

On this Feast of Michael the Archangel, we thank God for the many ways in which his loving care watches over us, both directly and through his messengers. We pray for all churches dedicated to St Michael, that God will richly bless their work. St Michael is the patron saint of law enforcement, so we pray for all who work in the legal profession, particularly our police officers, that they may administer justice fairly to us all.

September 30th

As we come to the end of our prayer month, we once again ask God's blessing on the Axe Valley Mission Community, and we pray that as we begin to think about our future together the path is brightly lit, so that we can grow in prayer, make new disciples and serve the people of the Axe Valley Mission Community with joy. Amen.
