Now Thank We All Our God

As we prepare for our Harvest Services and fellowship meals and events we have much to thank God for. Almost certainly this hymn will be sung in many of our churches and services – it is a traditional British hymn of thanksgiving :

Now thank we all our God,
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom this world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
has blessed us on our way
with countless gifts of love,
and still is ours today.

Yet this hymn was actually written by Martin Rinckart (1586-1649) a German minister, to thank God for the scraps of food they had on their table in a very meagre home in a desolate refugee city, afflicted with famine and disease and war in the early 1660s. He was archdeacon in the city of Eilenburg during the Thirty Years' War and, as one of the last surviving ministers in the city, Rinckart had to stretch personal resources to take care of refugees and spend most of his time performing nearly fifty funerals per day at the height of the plague.

This was not a hymn of ease but of thanks for small mercies and benefits. It was written in German and translated into English by Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878). It has become an anthem of Harvest but it is actually intended as an anthem of thanks for all the gifts of God and of His people. It was to be used all the time and in circumstances which we would consider extremely challenging.

As we sing this wonderful song over the next few weeks let's try to be thankful for all the mercies and benefits we have and enjoy – and sing this song all year round.

Following covid and in line with church guidance, our practice across AVMC churches has been to take communion by intinction (the priest dipping the bread in the wine before serving to the communicant). Our Bishops now advise that we should return to the pre pandemic practice of communicants receiving the wine from the chalice.

This format for communion will be reintroduced across our churches in line with the Bishop's expectation of diocesan churches.

We invite all communicants to receive the bread and to make their own decision as to whether they wish to take the wine from the 'common cup'. Receiving the consecrated bread is regarded as full communion, but the chalice will be available to take the wine. Once the chalice is re-introduced dipping the bread in the wine will no longer be available as an option.

Please do speak with your 'focal minister' about this should you have any concerns or queries.

Celebration of Harvest in the Minster
Sunday 2nd October @ 10.30am

Gifts and produce will be passed to the Foodbank to support those in food poverty within our community. Generous gifts of money and dry goods will make a real difference.

In particular the Foodbank needs tinned goods - especially tinned tomatoes, rice pudding, custard, soup, meat and vegetables. They also need pasta sauces, rice sachets and jam.

The foodbank is well stocked with many basic items such as dried pasta and it cannot use fresh items such as fruit and vegetables.

'Bags for life' are also helpful.

Please do bring any gifts to the Minster and we will pass them on.

Thank you for your help and kindness.
